

Mural #8: Punk & Skate in Hermosa- 70's & 80's

Location: 13th and Hermosa Ave, South Facing Wall

ABOUT THE ARTIST:

Daniel Inez

Inez is a South Bay native who grew up in the Skate/Punk culture of the Beach Cities. He is a Redondo Union High School Grad, United States Navy Veteran, holds A Bachelor's in Communication Arts from OTIS College of Art and Design, and is the owner/art director of M1SK and co-owner and founder of The Pacific Stranded. "When I was Design School, I was told to do what I know, so that's what I'm doing and I am thankful for all the continued community support. As far as this project I am beyond stoked to be a part of Hermosa's recognition of a subculture that has been a part of so many of our lives". Shop Dan's website here.

ABOUT THE MURAL:

Hermosa's punk and skate scene was centered in and around an abandoned Baptist Church on Manhattan Ave and is exemplified by the bands that originated and performed in that space including Black Flag, Pennywise, and Descendants.
